USDA RURAL DEVELOPMENT TO HOLD OUTREACH IN ORANGE COUNTY

WEST ORANGE, TEXAS, October 14, 2004, -- Representatives of USDA Rural Development will be at West Orange City Hall, 2700 Western Avenue, West Orange, Texas, on Wednesday, November 10, 2004, from 10:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. A representative will assist individuals with applications and provide information about the various housing, community and business and cooperative programs.

USDA Rural Development's housing programs offer loans and grants to very low, low, and moderate income persons in towns and cities meeting certain population requirements. Programs offered assist qualified persons to buy, build, repair or maintain a home.

USDA Rural Development's community programs enhance the quality of life for rural Texans by providing funds to governmental entities, nonprofit organizations and Indian Tribes to enlarge, improve or construct schools, libraries, medical clinics, assisted living centers, public buildings, community centers and fund new and improved water and wastewater facilities.

USDA Rural Development's business and cooperative programs provide the needed capital to expand economic opportunities and development in rural areas throughout Texas by working with banks and community lenders. There is no minimum loan size and the maximum loan size that will be considered is up to $25 million.

USDA Rural Development is committed to help improve the quality of life for rural Texans. For more information regarding USDA Rural Development programs, please contact the Angleton office at (979) 849-5251, Ext. 4.
